

VINCENT ST. JOHN ATTACKS MAHONEY

Crisis Reached in Fight of Industrials to Control the Western Federation.

ACTING PRESIDENT IN STRONG DEFENSE

Denies Hiring Thugs to Slug St. John and Stealing Records of I. W. W.—Moyer Backs Up Acting Officials.

By Associated Press.
DENVER, Colo., June 25.—The crisis in the fight against acting President Mahoney of the Western Federation was reached today when the clause of his report in regard to the Industrial Workers was taken up in the convention. Vincent St. John of Goldfield led the attack upon the acting president. It is conceded as the first incident in the struggle to control the Federation by the Socialist party.

In his discussion today St. John upheld the use of the injunction in his arraignment of the acting officials of the Federation. The injunction is a court weapon he had always denounced as a club created for the exclusive use of the capitalist class, but he admitted that he used this weapon to gain possession of the records of the Industrial Workers, after Mahoney and others had taken charge of the machinery of the organization.

Freezing Out Socialists

St. John charged that Mahoney stopped at nothing to gain control of the Industrial Workers and freeze out the Socialists.

The chair, in announcing the question before the convention, said that a final vote on the adoption or rejection of the president's report will decide whether the federation will remain with the Industrial Workers or withdraw and form a great industrial union organization.

Mahoney recommended that the federation should not side with either faction in the Industrial Workers and this position was sustained by a majority of the committee which considered the report.

St. John said that Mahoney employed thugs and even an expert safe blower to get possession of the records of the Industrial Workers.

Have Moyer's Support
Mahoney and acting Secretary Kirwan have the support of President Charles H. Moyer in the fight. President Moyer wrote the following letter last November and has not since indicated a change of views:

"I have studied carefully the Industrial Workers convention reports and after giving the same due consideration I cannot but fully endorse the position taken by your acting president and secretary-treasurer."

Late this afternoon Mahoney took the floor. He spoke for half an hour before adjournment and will continue his defense tomorrow. Mahoney repudiated all the charges against him.

Taking up the second convention of the Industrial Workers, held last fall in Chicago, he gave the history of the proceedings and declared that they were irregular from the opening.

Workers Were Irregular
A few radicals tried to gain possession of the convention, he said, while he and some other members of the Western Federation endeavored to have the proceedings according to the constitution. The convention amended the constitution, legislating out of existence the office of president.

In regard to the charges of St. John that he had appointed men to steal the Industrial Workers records, Mahoney said he did not deny that he had employed men to protect the records, but that nothing had been taken from the Industrial Workers because at that time the organization was practically disorganized. Mahoney emphatically denied that he had employed anyone to slug St. John or that he knew anything of it.

WARSHIPS LEAVE FOR NICARAGUA

United States Believes that There Will Be Trouble in Central America

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 25.—The possibility of serious trouble in Central America growing out of the disturbed conditions existing there incidental to the alleged ambition of President Zelaya of Nicaragua to form a union of Central American states, has caused the administration to dispatch the new cruiser Milwaukee to that locality. Orders to proceed forthwith from Mare Island, Cal., went from the navy department today.

The vessel will go to La Union, Salvador. The collier Saturn has been directed to proceed to La Union and from this vessel the Milwaukee and the gunboat Yorktown, which is now at Acapulco, will coal. The stay of the Milwaukee in Central American waters is problematical and will depend upon conditions that develop in that section of the world. She goes ostensibly "for the protection of American interests," which are threatened because of the situation that now exists.

The cruiser St. Louis, now on the way to Brazilian ports, is en route to the Pacific coast and will arrive in Central American waters in about two months. It may be that she will relieve the Milwaukee in event the administration decides to have that vessel return or it is necessary to continue the presence of two American vessels in that section.

THE BRITISH WINSTON CHURCHILL.

Now then Winston Churchill of America or Winston Churchill of England does something to attract attention. The English Winston Churchill, whose picture is given here, is a young man of many roles. He is half American, and his strenuous character shows it. His mother, before her marriage to the late Lord Randolph Churchill, was Miss Jennie Jerome of New York. Winston Churchill has been a member of parliament since 1900. He made a reputation as an orator very shortly after entering that body. He is said to be a more eloquent speaker than was his distinguished father. Young Churchill, who is in his thirty-third year, has won fame as soldier and author.

CHURCHES WANT PEACE INSURED

Address Presented to Peace Conference at The Hague by All Christian Churches.

CARNEGIES VISIT PEACE PALACE SITE

Pittsburg Millionaire Thinks That Kaiser Wilhelm Is the Real Thing in White Wings Doves of Peace.

By Associated Press.
THE HAGUE, June 25.—The president of the peace conference, M. Nelidoff, today received a deputation from the Christian churches throughout the world, headed by the Very Rev. William Henry Freeman, dean of Rheon, who presented an address urging the conference to insure peace in justice to humanity. His address was signed by all the leading churchmen of Great Britain except the Catholics, who refused to participate even indirectly in the conference to which the pope was not invited. Nine American Catholic bishops signed the address.

M. Nelidoff cordially thanked the deputation for the interest they had taken in the work of the conference. The proposition which France presented to the second committee (land war) has not yet been definitely drafted. It will merely express the wish that a declaration of war must be compulsory before the opening of hostilities.

Carnegies Are There
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, accompanied by President Van Karnebeck of the government commission charged with the erection of the Palace of Peace, the money for which was provided by Carnegie, today visited the site. In the afternoon Carnegie, accompanied by Minister Hill, visited Dr. Tets Van Goudrian, foreign minister of The Netherlands, who renewed expressions of his thanks for Carnegie's generous donation.

Carnegie expressed great satisfaction at his recent meeting with Emperor William at Kiel, adding that he gained the impression that the emperor was the most sincere advocate of peace and would do all in his power to prevent conflicts. Mr. Van Karnebeck gave a luncheon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie.

HONORS HEAPED ON MARK TWAIN

American Humorist Dined by The Pilgrims and Receives Congratulations

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 25.—The finest tribute which Mark Twain has received in England was the Pilgrims' luncheon in his honor today. The hosts numbered 150. Two notable speeches were made, that of Chief Secretary for Ireland Birrell introducing Twain, which was classic and full of humor, and concluding with a tribute which brought the company to its feet with prolonged cheering, and Mr. Clemens' reply, which was largely humorous.

A telegram of congratulations signed "Undergraduates of Oxford," was read and another from the New York Pilgrims. The presence of many members of parliament was particularly complimentary, as they were obliged to absent themselves from one of the most important and interesting debates of the season.

The committee in charge of the luncheon was obliged to refuse the applications of many thousand persons of prominence who were anxious to attend.

SWEAR ORCHARD HAD THREATENED

First Witness for Haywood Defense Says He Threatened to Kill Steunenberg.

ORCHARD HIMSELF ON THE STAND YESTERDAY

To Permit Forming Impeachment Questions—Again Denies that He Held Grudge Because of Hercules Matter.

By Associated Press.
BOISE, Idaho, June 25.—The first direct testimony in the defense of Haywood was offered today and was chiefly directed towards showing that Orchard, blaming Steunenberg for the loss of his interest in the Hercules mine, had threatened to have revenge by killing him; that the conduct of Orchard and K. C. Sterling, both before the Independence explosion, when they were frequently seen together, and afterward, when Sterling called off the bloodhounds that were following Orchard's trail, justified the inference that the mine owners inspired the crime.

The calling of the first witness for the defense was preceded by further examination of Orchard to permit the defense to complete the formal impeachment questions. The questions were all in connection with the claim that Orchard killed Steunenberg because of the alleged grudge growing out of the sale of his interest in the Hercules mine.

Sticks to First Story
Orchard, who came into court under protection of the same squad of guards which always acts as his escort, maintained his old calmness of manner and spoke in the same low-pitched, soft tone. He again denied that he ever threatened to kill Steunenberg because of the Hercules mine and again he asserted that he had sold his interest before the trouble that drove him out of northern Idaho.

Two witnesses who were called later in the day, swore that Orchard did threaten to kill Steunenberg because of the Hercules matter and the defense has prepared the way for much more testimony from a dozen or more witnesses. The two heard today were F. R. Fred, once of Cripple Creek, and Charles A. Sullivan.

UNITED RAILROADS CLAIM VICTORY

Number of Cars Normally Operated Before Strike in Commission Today

By Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 25.—Beginning tomorrow the United Railroads, according to a statement made by Manager Mullally, will restore complete street car service on all lines north of Market street and on Valencia street. Two hundred cars, the number normally operated before the strike, will be in commission.

Regarding the United Railroads lines Mr. Mullally said:
"From our standpoint the strike is now won. We have 1,100 platform men in service, whom we are paying from 25 to 31 cents an hour. About 100 of these 1,100 are from the ranks of the strikers. We are gradually extending the service toward a complete restoration, and from time to time shall have places for about 600 more motormen and conductors."

Impeach Crooked Minister

By Associated Press.
ROME, June 25.—The committee of the chamber of deputies has reported in favor of impeaching Signor Nunzio Nasi, former minister of public instruction, who is charged with absconding with a half million from the state treasury.

Judge's Opinion

"The question for the court to determine is one of jurisdiction, whether the returning of the grand jury list for 1907 operated as a legal termination of the life of the grand jury which found these indictments or whether the mere act of the filing of indictments with the court gave the court jurisdiction to proceed in the course laid down by the legislature to try the defendants."

"Of course, if the grand jury has no existence in law, its acts have no validity and the indictments must be set aside. The court will welcome any further light that counsel may be able to afford."

The hearing is continued until tomorrow.

DEFENSE CLAIMS INDICTMENTS NIL

New Contention by Lawyers of Millionaire Bribers Appears to Be a Strong One.

GRAFT PROSECUTION MAY START ALL OVER

Delmas and Coogan Say that Oliver Grand Jury Was Legally Dead and Could Not Bring the Indictments.

By Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 25.—All the various grounds urged by the defense in support of the motion to set aside the bribery indictments against Vice President Louis Glass of the Pacific Telephone company and other big corporation officials were retired to positions of comparative insignificance this afternoon by the importance of a new contention presented and argued by Mr. Glass' attorneys, Delmas M. Delmas and T. C. Coogan. If their contention is upheld by Judge Lawler, who has taken it under advisement, all but a minor handful of indictments thus far returned by the Oliver grand jury will be set aside as null and void, and all the late work of the bribery-graft prosecution will have to be done over again.

Briefly stated, the charge brought by Delmas and Coogan, which by formal understanding is for the benefit of all other defendants as well—Abraham Ruef, Mayor Schmitz, Theodore V. Halsey, Patrick Calhoun, Thorne M. Mulhally, Tiley L. Ford, William M. Abbott, Abraham K. Detweiler, Eugene de Sabla, John Martin, Frank G. Drum, G. H. Umbson and Joseph E. Green—is this:
Grand Jury Illegal
All acts performed by the present grand jury since a date early in January this year are invalid, because the present grand jury ceased lawfully to exist when the new grand jury list for 1907 was certified by the county judges on the date referred to.

The constitution, the law and the supreme court decisions as presented to the court by Mr. Delmas and Mr. Coogan provide and declare that a grand jury shall be selected at least once a year and that it shall serve until the next grand jury list is made up by the county judges and returned to the county clerk; that thereupon the existing grand jury shall expire and its place be taken by the new body chosen from the newly prepared list.

Should Have Been Discharged

The undisputed facts are these: Early in January the grand jury list for 1907 was duly certified to by twelve judges and returned to the county clerk, but the Oliver grand jury, being in the midst of its bribery-graft investigation was not thereupon discharged. Instead it was continued in existence under the belief of Messrs. Langdon and Heneay that, having been selected in the fall of 1906, it could legally exist for twelve months, or until the fall of 1907. The grand jury list for 1907 was allowed to lie dormant and the Oliver grand jury proceeded to return scores of indictments against the men named in the months of April and May just passed.

Judge Lawler, in commenting upon the merits of the defense's contention, said:

"The question for the court to determine is one of jurisdiction, whether the returning of the grand jury list for 1907 operated as a legal termination of the life of the grand jury which found these indictments or whether the mere act of the filing of indictments with the court gave the court jurisdiction to proceed in the course laid down by the legislature to try the defendants."
